RULING ON ENTITLEMENT¹

Dorsey, Chief Special Master:

On December 22, 2017, petitioner filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, et seq.,² (the “Vaccine Act”). Petitioner alleges that he suffered Guillian-Barre Syndrome (“GBS”) as a result of the influenza vaccination received on October 17, 2016. Petition at 1-2. The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit of the Office of Special Masters.

On October 17, 2018, respondent filed his Rule 4(c) report in which he concedes that petitioner is entitled to compensation in this case. Respondent’s Rule 4(c) Report at 1. Specifically, respondent states that “petitioner suffered the Table injury of GBS following a flu vaccine within the Table time period, and there is not a preponderance of the medical evidence that petitioner’s GBS was due to a factor unrelated to the vaccination.” Id. at 6. Respondent further agrees that “[t]he claim also meets the statutory severity requirements because petitioner experienced sequelae of his GBS for more than six months” and therefore “compensation is appropriate, as petitioner has satisfied all legal prerequisites for compensation under the Act.” Id.

² National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act of 1986, Pub. L. No. 99-660, 100 Stat. 3755. Hereinafter, for ease of citation, all “§” references to the Vaccine Act will be to the pertinent subparagraph of 42 U.S.C. § 300aa (2012).

In view of respondent’s position and the evidence of record, the undersigned finds that petitioner is entitled to compensation.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
